

HorseAbility Instructor Training Course Application

HorseAbility's Instructor Training Course (ITC) is an eight week program designed to prepare you for the PATH International Registered Level Instructor Certification. The ITC program is the first step in becoming a knowledgeable asset in the field of equine assisted activities and therapies. This course will include both lecture and riding portions that cover topics from disability education to daily horse care while learning within the parameters of PATH standards. HorseAbility's knowledgeable staff will be available to assist you through the certification process. The course will run from the first week of March through the end of April, and the cost is $399 due at the first class.

If you have any questions please contact Annie at rideschooldirector@horseability.org or (516) 333-6151.

This application must be submitted by Saturday, February 4, 2017. Applications will be reviewed and acceptance notifications with course dates will be communicated by February 28, 2017.
